I did cover that event. They were included in the last batch of photos I sent you. I was not able to get a decent shot of the new mural itself because of how high up it is. I think the best way to shoot that mural would be from the parking garage on 6th and Center with a long lens. Let me know if you need a shot of it and I'll grab you one.

Casey,

Did you take photos of this?

If you did and we have it I can look through the photos.

Thanks.

Hi Lorena,

I understand that you hired a photographer for the Warner Grand Mural Unveiling during Fleet Week. Would it be possible for us to have permission to use those photos on our website and the LA Department of Cultural Affairs website? We would of course credit the BID.

All the best,

Amy
